

Request an R204(c) Letter of Support

New Brunswick Provincial Nominee Program (NBNPN)

A person who has a valid nomination from the NBNPN for permanent residence and is employed or has a job offer from an employer based in New Brunswick may be issued a work permit without requiring a Labour Market Impact Assessment (LMIA). Spouses or common-law partners of work permit holders who have been nominated for permanent residence by a province are entitled to open work permits for the duration of the work permit of the provincial nominee principal applicant, irrespective of the skill level of the principal applicant's occupation. If there is not enough space to provide all the necessary information, attach a separate sheet of paper with further details. For more information visit: <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/resources/tools/temp/work/opinion/territories-provinces.asp>.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR YOUR EMPLOYER

The International Mobility Program (IMP) lets employers hire temporary workers without a Labour market Impact Assessment (LMIA). Exemptions from the LMIA process are based on broader economic, cultural or other competitive advantages for Canada; and the reciprocal benefits enjoyed by Canadians and permanent residents. In most cases, to hire a temporary worker through the IMP, the employer must pay a compliance fee of $230 and submit an offer of employment form through the IRCC Employer Portal before you submit an application for a new work permit.
