

Applying to the New Brunswick Skilled Worker stream: A Quick-Step Guide

Under the NB Skilled Worker stream, there are a few steps to the process before you would be eligible to submit a full and complete application:

- Registration in INB
- Submission of an Expression of Interest (EOI)
- Receipt of an Invitation to Apply (ITA)

Step by Step: Submitting an Expression of Interest (EOI) under the NB Skilled Worker stream

1

- Register via the INB Portal
- Complete your Candidate Profile Information
- Accept the Terms and Conditions

Registration in INB involves providing your full name (as it appears on your passport), the email address that will be used for all correspondence related to your account and your application, and the creation of your account password.

Candidate Profile Information includes your full name (as it appears on your passport); your date of birth; your gender; your marital status; your language preferences; your country of residence and your status in that country; your country of citizenship; your passport information; details about your family members, and your full contact information (country, civic address, telephone number, etc.)

2

- Select I Want to Work in New Brunswick then NB Skilled Worker and click on the button labeled Start My EOI
- Select your NB Connection
- Complete the screening questions related to Admissibility, Language, Education, Work Experience, and Adaptability
- Calculate your score
- Validate and submit your EOI

In INB, most applications begin with an EOI.

The NB Connection is the first measure of eligibility for our various Economic Immigration Programs. For the NB Skilled Worker stream, only individuals with a valid job offer (or who are already working) in the Province of New Brunswick are eligible.

Once you complete the screening questions, you are provided with a Self-Assessment Score. This score is not an official evaluation of your candidacy. It is a preliminary snapshot of your potential eligibility.

3

- You will receive a notice in your Notification Centre acknowledging receipt of your EOI.
- If your EOI is selected, you will receive an Invitation to Apply (ITA) in your Notification Centre.
- Only once you receive an ITA can you then proceed to the NB Skilled Worker Application process.

The Acknowledgement of Receipt simply means that you have successfully submitted your Expression of Interest (EOI). It does not imply whether you are eligible to apply to the program.

Only registrants who are determined to be eligible will be offered an ITA, and only those who receive an ITA will be eligible to submit a full application to the NB Skilled Worker stream. ITAs are only valid for a period 45 days. If your ITA expires, and you still wish to apply, you will need to repeat Step 2, above, to submit a new EOI.
